Soul of Love: A poetic expression by TAMIR.

TAMIR is an actress, poet and playwright, author and performer of one-woman shows, “In the Land of Israel” and “I Belong Elsewhere.”

Her CD of devotional readings “Poetry on Prayer” is an interfaith celebration of the human spirit, comprising of poetry from around the world, celebrating the unifying theme of prayer. It brings to life onstage great literature that grew out of the common experience and yearning for that which always IS. It includes poetry by Krishnamurthi, Kabir, Octavio Paz, Tagore, Gary Synder, Emily Dickinson, Ritsos, Zelda, Haiku, Darshan Singh, Czeslaw Milosz and more.

Her new play “Next!” is a humorous and poignant monodrama about the audition process. She also wrote “The Way of the Heart” as a play for four women about dying consciously and the struggle of letting go, which incorporates some of these verses, stories and music as well as dance and whirling.

TAMIR will be performing on "Soul of Love". "Soul of Love" is sacred poetry of master poet Sant Darshan Singh. Anjan Madhwesh will be accompanying TAMIR with background music.
